MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Oladokun et al. (Daryl Bartley), 20 cr. 00003 (SDNY) (KPF)

Dear Judge Failla,

I represent Darryl Bartley, who is scheduled to appear before this Court at a bail review hearing on October 13, 2021 at 11 a.m. As the Court likely recalls, Mr. Bartley suffers from a variety of health conditions, including, among other things, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, hypertension, atrial fibrillation and congestive heart failure. Upon receiving notice that this Court intended to proceed with the bail review hearing in person, I asked Mr. Bartley to consult with his medical team to determine whether traveling from his home in Washington, D.C. to the Southern District of New York would present a risk to his health.

As set forth in the attached letter, Mr. Bartley's physician advises against traveling.

In light of the medical advice not to travel, I respectfully request that Mr. Bartley be permitted to appear remotely at the bail review hearing on Wednesday. If the Court grants this request but wishes counsel to appear in person, I can be physically present at the hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
